Section 1. Protective Policies: The Board of Directors shall procure and maintain, in its name as agent or trustee for the benefit of the co-owners who shall be deemed parties insured, policies of insurance in stock or mutual insurance companies licensed to do business in the State of North Carolina, to the extent obtainable, as follows:

A. If by decision of the Board of Directors it is deemed necessary, a policy or policies insuring the common properties of the Association against loss, damage or destruction by fire or other casualty, including lightning, windstorm, hail, explosion, riot, civil commotion, aircraft, vehicle, falling object, smoke, malicious mischief, vandalism, collapse through weight of snow, ice or sleet, water, flood, and other similar casualties, in an aggregate amount equal to the full insurable replacement value of the improvements, without regard to depreciation. B. Such insurance as will protect the owners, and each of them, from claims under workmen's compensation acts and other employee benefit acts, where necessary.

C. Such insurance as will protect the manager or agent, the Board of Directors, the owners and each of them, from claims for damage to the property, any or all of which may arise out of or result from ownership of any interest in the Association project or the management or operation of said project, or because of any injury or damage sustained on or attributable to the property, including the ownership, maintenance and use of the parking areas. It is intended that the insurance described in this subparagraph C be a comprehensive general liability policy endorsed to protect each co-owner against all liability arising out of or otherwise attributable to the property, including operation of the premises, products liability, liability attributable to work or other act of an independent contractor, or let or sublet work, landlord-tenant liability, and contractual liability. Further, the insurance shall cover the liability of one or more co-owners, as parties insured. Such public liability insurance shall be in the limits of at least $100,000.00 for injuries or damages sustained by any one person, $300,000.00 for injuries or damages sustained by two or more persons in any one accident, and $10,000.00 for property damage. The public liability insurance policy shall be so endorsed as to protect the insured against liability imposed or assumed by any contract.

D. In all events, each policy of insurance procured under this Section 1 of Article VI shall contain a waiver of the insurer's subrogation rights against each co-owner, and a waiver of any defense maintainable by the insurer by reason of any co-insurance provision of any policy or by reason of any act or neglect of any co-owner, whether before or after the loss, damage or destruction may occur. Further, each policy of insurance shall provide that any co-owner in his own right may procure other insurance, fire casualty, liability or otherwise, and that such other insurance shall in no way serve to reduce, abate or diminish, or cause any proration in payment of the total loss by the insurer. Each policy of insurance procured under paragraphs A or B of this section shall state that the exclusive right and authority to adjust losses under the policy shall be vested in the Board of Directors.

E. The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless the individual lot owners from any liability on matters where such liability would appropriately be borne by the Association. In the event that liability for any matter or act arising out of the ownership of the property subject to these Bylaws or the common properties appurtenant thereto, other than intentional or malicious acts which are so adjudicated, shall be adjudicated by final decree against any one or more owners and in the further event that the liability for such act or event exceeds the policy limits of insurance or in the event that the insurance does not provide coverage for such events of liability, the owners of all of the lots in the subdivision, shall indemnify and hold harmless the parties so adjudicated to be liable, in proportion to the interests held by each of them to the total lots in the subdivision, and such indemnity shall extend to and include the damages, cost of defense including attorney fees, judgment award and all other similar costs. Such indemnity shall take the form of an assessment or assessments and shall constitute a lien in the same manner as other common expenses of the Association. The provisions of this paragraph are not to be construed so as to imply that any individual owner is liable directly for the acts or responsibilities of the Association or to otherwise change the liability of any party as it would stand if not for the provisions hereof, except as stated herein.

Nothing provided in this Article VI shall prejudice the right of any owner to insure himself against liability to others.

Section 2. Application for Insurance: Each owner shall furnish such information and sign such application forms or other documents, if any, as may be required to obtain insurance as provided in this Article VI.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Checks, Drafts, Etc.: All checks, drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes and other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Association shall be signed by such officers, agents or manager of the Association, as determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 1. The restrictive covenants for the Swan View Shores subdivision establish certain standards for construction of improvements, setbacks, and other building requirements. These standards are made applicable to each lot in the subdivision. The covenants also provide for the review process to be administered by the association of property owners for the subdivision. Based upon such authority, the Board of Directors shall establish a committee for the purpose of administering the architectural standards set forth in the declaration of covenants and restrictions for the subdivision. The rules of operation, number of committee members and their eligibility shall be established by the Board of Directors and shall be subject to further change in the discretion of the board.
