

The Gables

Site Plan

While the developer is not obligated to build all units, common areas and amenities as described on the site plan and on the individual building plans (NIC General Statute 47C-4-103), the developer does intend to complete the community in substantial conformity to those plans.